COMMUNITY

Art is an important part of our society.
It elevates our everyday experiences.

GDAS are a dedicated group of artists.
Our aim is to foster art in the community.

We do this through regular painting days, workshops and exhibitions, thus encouraging artists in their endeavours and drawing art to the attention of the general public.

Investing in the culture and life of our community contributes to the social wellbeing of individuals and groups who gather in public spaces.

The importance of social involvement is key to solidifying lasting relationships within our community.

Engaging people through art is educational. Art's universal dialogue informs and unites us.

The conversations that we have through creativity encourage new connections that support the sharing of ideas and contribute to more inclusive environments that give way to positive change.

Giving back to the community through active involvement opens doors and creates scenarios where everyone benefits.

Giving back in ways that fit your business values and culture signifies to the wider community that you are serious about being part of the change it wishes to see.

Art connects people and communities and provides opportunities.

HISTORY

The city of Goulburn has had an art society since 1904.

During this time there have been numerous exhibitions.

At present, Art Society holds an exhibition each year in the Goulburn Workers Club auditorium known as the

GOULBURN WORKERS CLUB ANNUAL ART PRIZE.

With over 300 entries it is the largest art exhibition held in Goulburn and attracts artists from near and far, including the ACT, Sydney, Southern Highlands & Tablelands, Central & South Coasts, Victoria and Queensland.

This year's exhibition will be held 3rd – 6th October 2025.

A handful of local businesses, the Goulburn Mulwaree Council and the Goulburn Workers Club assist with providing financial support.

The Art Society greatly appreciate the loyalty and support of such partnerships that give artists the opportunity to produce their very best work for this unique community affair.
